

We must have actions to support who we claim to be.

Identity Comes as We Follow

FOCUS SCRIPTURE

Matthew 4:19

19 Then He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

MAIN POINT

"When Jesus invited us to follow, it wasn't a burden that he put on us, that was an invitation He offered us."

– Caleb Treat

As we follow, He will make.
The weight that is on us is to be willing to follow.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Think about this statement and discuss: We are made, defined, transformed, and molded into who God called us to be as we follow.
- When was a time that you were distracted from following Jesus?
- Read Matthew 28:19-20 (MSG) and discuss how it can be applied to your everyday life.
- Think about this statement and discuss: You can't say you are something and not have actions to support it.
- Read Matthew 5:48 (MSG) and discuss how it can be applied to your everyday life.
- Think about this statement and discuss: The longer you follow someone the more they start to define who you are.
